REAL ESTATE.

H. W. CARY BUYS THE FAMOUS LANIER COUNTRY SEAT.

Hamilton Wilkes Cary has bought the estate of James F. D. Lanier, at Westbury, Long Island, for about $100,000. The property consists of a handsome country house, stables and about sixty-five acres of land. The place was famous during past years for its entertainments. It was leased for two years to William C. Whitney, and at the present time to Clarence W. Mackay, whose lease expires on October 19. Mr. Mackay made this country seat his home after his recent marriage to Miss Katharine Duer. The transaction was conducted through Smith & Stevens, as agents for Mr. Cary. RECORD OF PRIVATE SALES.
